

Tibbs Dementia Foundation Vulnerable Adults Protection Policy

Tibbs Dementia Foundation is committed to ensuring that vulnerable people who use our services are not abused and that working practices minimise the risk of such abuse. Staff, volunteers & trustees of Tibbs Dementia Foundation have a duty to identify abuse and report it.

Definition

Vulnerable adults are people who are over 18 years of age and are getting or may need help and services to live in the community. Vulnerable adults may be unable to take care of themselves and unable to protect themselves from harm or exploitation by other people.

Abuse can include:

- physical,
- financial,
- material,
- sexual,
- psychological,
- discriminatory,
- emotional abuse
- neglect.
- Self neglect
- modern slavery
- acts of omission
- organisational abuse

Abuse can take place in any setting, public or private, and can be perpetrated by anyone.
